

BRINGING TO LIGHT WOMEN'S COURAGEOUS DEEDS IN HISTORY

SPEAKER SERIES

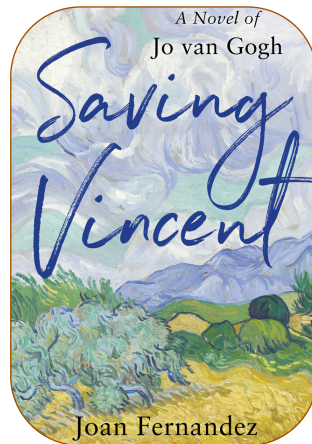

Feisty women spanning six centuries in 23 short stories, including "The Parisian Daughter," by Joan Fernandez.

The unacknowledged true story of Jo van Gogh's fervent quest to save Vincent van Gogh's art from obscurity.

Joan Fernandez is an award-winning novelist who brings to light brilliant women's courageous deeds in history.

RELEASED
JUNE 2024

WILL RELEASE
APRIL 15, 2025

AUTHOR TALK
AND SIGNINGS

- 2024 Winner for Anthology, American Writers Award
- 2024 Anthology Gold Medalist, Coffee Pot Book Club
- 4.76 Goodreads rating
- ISBNs
- Paperback
979-8-9868844-5-5
- ebook 979-8-9868844-4-8
- 254 pages
- "These stories are purposeful, powerful and inspiring. . ."

—Goodreads review

- 2024 Winner for Art, and Finalist in Women's Fiction, Am Writers Award
- ISBNs
- Paperback
978-1-64742-870-9
- ebook 978-1-64742-871-6
- 384 pages
- Book Club Questions
- "An intriguing art- and history-filled tribute to an oft-overlooked dynamic woman."

—Kirkus Reviews

- "Lovers of Van Gogh's work will find this story intense, vibrant, and deeply moving."

—Pub Weekly, BookLife

- Available for book discussions and signings in person (St. Louis area, Sedona and Flagstaff, AZ) and online book clubs.
- Speaker topics:
- The Book that Bit Back: Van Gogh's shadow loomed, but the fear of regret fueled my relentless pursuit of Jo.
- Weaving Fact & Fiction: The art of writing biographical historical novels.
- Nurturing Your Creative Soul: How to kickstart your artistic calling.
- Hustle & Heart: Blueprint to building a market.
- "Joan Fernandez delivered an engaging talk. . . both informative and thought-provoking."

—K.T. Blakemore, author

EMAIL TODAY TO BOOK:
JOAN@JOANSF.COM

@JOANFERNANDEZAUTOR
JOANFERNANDEZ.SUBSTACK.COM
WWW.JOANFERNANDEZAUTOR.COM

